

ENERGY MIXTURE FOR THE YEAR 2024

|                                                                                                                                                                                          | ENERGY MIXTURE OFEAC SUPPLY | ENERGY MIXTURE OFCYPRUS |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------|-----------------------------|
| Fossil Fuels                                                                                                                                                                             | 84,87%                          | 81,80%                      |
| RES                                                                                                                                                                                      | 15,12%                          | 18,19%                      |
| Other Sources                                                                                                                                                                            | 0,01%                           | 0,01%                       |
| The environmental impact of the energy mixture of EAC Supply in the year 2024 in terms of greenhouse gases emissions (CO <sub>2</sub> ) is 651,07 gCO <sub>2</sub> / kWh of energy sold. |                                 |                             |

For more information on Electricity Suppliers Energy Mixture Disclosure please visit the Transmission System Operator - Cyprus website www.tsoc.org.cy.